Permit No. 8.

November 17, 1916.

Cancelled

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERIES OPERATIONS WITHIN THE ALEUTIAN ISLANDS RESERVATION, ALASKA.

Under the provisions of Executive Order of March 3, 1913, establishing the Aleutian Islands Reservation, and in accordance with the regulations for the Aleutian Islands Reservation, Alaska, effective March 15, 1914, Mr. S. Applegate, whose post-office address is 2609 Regent Street, Berkeley, California, is hereby authorized individually, or jointly with Mr. A. C. Goes, of Unalaska, Alaska, to secure in the vicinity of Unnak Island, Aleutian Islands Reservation, Alaska, not to exceed three hundred (300) barrels of salmon per annum and to sell the same either fresh or salted: Provided, That all fish secured shall be purchased from Aleuts or Indians who are residents of the said reservation and that all subsequent work in connection with the preparation of the fish for market shall be performed by them and that they shall receive satisfactory compensation for such fish and services: And provided further, That the purchasing of fish shall be suspended if at any time it becomes apparent either to the permittee or to the Bureau of Fisheries that the supply of fish required for food for the aforesaid Aleuts or Indians is endangered: And provided further, That the permittee shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the Aleutian Islands Reservation (copies of which are hereto attached), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purpose, and that an annual report shall be made to the Commissioner of Fisheries, Washington, D. C., not later than December 31 of each year covering in detail all operations by virtue of this permit.

This permit is not transferable and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce. It expires December 31, 1918.

Secretary.
